

1 I am not saying, and I don't make the case --
2 maybe other members of the minority report do -- I don't 3 make the case that we can assure each county having one
4 seat at all times in the future. I don't say that 5 we can or cannot. I say that if we cannot, let's make 6 that pain as easy as we can make it, but the 7 only place to do that is in a legislative group, and not 8 in a Constitutional Convention delegation as we have here
9 today.

10 I would like to take just a few final concluding 11 moments with respect to some of the comments mentioned by 12 our distinguished, jovial, always humorous Chairman, if 13 I can find them. I may have to ask him for his text.

14 The Chairman stated yesterday that the proposi-
15 tion that was before the group in the matter of a majority 16 report was a compromise. I think that compromise should be 17 clearly understood. It was not only a playing of the 18 numbers game. It was a playing of the game with the 19 firm realization that unless we had some kind of a majority
20 report, some kind of a ratio in numbers, no proposition 21 would ever come before this chamber, and that is the
